

Dear Company,

Our company informs you that for the establishment and for the execution of contractual relationship in progress, it is in possession of data accepted also verbally directly or through third party, relative to you, data qualified like Law personal.

In reference to this data, we inform you that:

data shall be processed in relation to contractual requirements and to consequent fulfillments of legal and contractual obligations resulting from them as well as to get an effective management of business relationships (apart from other specific purposes like for example promotional marketing, statistical and quality control). Data shall be processed in written form and/or on magnetic, electronic and telematic support;

the assignment of data is obligatory for all is required by law and by the contract and so, the possible refusal to supply them or to the next treatment may determine the impossibility for our company to follow with contractual partnership;

the failed assignment, instead of all data that are not referable to legal or contractual obligations, it will be valued from time to time by our society and it will establish the consequent decisions relate to the importance of data requested regarding the business relationship management;

Provided that communications or diffusions effectuated by law obligations, data will can to be communicated in Italy to:

- our agent-net
- credit institutions
- debt collection company
- professional consultants
- only for aim of the credit preservation and for a better management of our rights relative to the only business partnership.

Data shall be processed for all the duration of business partnership established and also successively for completion of all law performances as well as future business aims.

In relation to them, your society can exercise rights expected from article 7 of decree n. 196/2003 (copy attached) In limits and to expected conditions from article 8, 9 and 10 of the same decree.

Data controller in our society.

Date _____

Signature _____

Our society declare to have received complete informative to senses of art. 13 del decree legislative 196/2003 with a copy of art. 7 of the same decree, and express the consent for the use and communication of personal data qualified like personal sued law in the limits, for the aims and for the duration indicated in the informative.

Date _____

Signature _____